

Production Systems / Network Admin

Description:

We are a fast-paced company seeking a Systems / Network Administrator to join our team of talented developers and architects building and supporting our cloud based Product Serialization and Track and Trace solution. Customers use the Frequentz platform to globally track drugs and food, combating counterfeiting and supporting sustainability and social responsibility. Beyond offering a fun and interesting work environment, we offer our employees a great benefits package, and regularly reward loyalty and hard work

Education and Experience:

- Demonstrable skills and 5+ years of experience managing, troubleshooting and turning Linux systems
- Experience managing Production Environments
- 4+ years of experience in network administration
- Experience in VLANs, IPSEC, LAN/WAN routing and DNS
- Experience with Virtualization technologies, such as VMware vSphere, ESX or ESXI and vCenter
- Experience in installing and maintaining Oracle, DB2 and PostgreSQL databases
- Experience with corporate IT, phone systems, laptops, VPN.
- Prior experience passing through customer audit process of processes, systems for compliance
- Experience and Interest in DevOps technologies is a plus

Qualifications and Responsibilities:

- Design and architecture of reliable and scalable infrastructure
- Create and manage Development, QA and Production VMs
- Work to design and implement proper security measures for code and data
- Experience in configuring and practicing failover protection, backup and recovery of systems
- Installation patching, troubleshooting, performance tuning and security of production environments
- Manage Linux (Red Hat or Centos) servers for 24x7 in development and production
- Configure, administer and monitor: Routers, Firewalls, Load balancers and Network Switches
- Help to configure and manage Laptop, Manage Google Apps: Google drive, Gmail and Google sites
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills